Set on one of Chelsea's most sought-after streets, this beautifully proportioned two-bedroom maisonette extending to approximately 1,080 sq ft occupies the first and second floors of an elegant period building on Sydney Street, SW3, moments from South Kensington.

Offering high ceilings, attractive period detailing and strong natural light, creating a calm and refined feel that is immediately appealing. In addition, the property benefits from private outdoor space, including two balconies and an exclusive right to use part of the flat roof, a rare and valuable feature for a period property in this location.

The first floor includes a generous reception/dining space and a separate kitchen making the living space highly functional and easy to use. The second floor includes two well-proportioned bedrooms and bathroom facilities positioned above.

Sydney Street is widely regarded as one of Chelsea's finest residential addresses, ideally positioned for South Kensington, the King's Road, and the area's renowned restaurants, boutiques and transport links.

Charles Jordan believes the best property advice starts with understanding the person, not the property. With more than 17 years' experience across London property, Charles has handled everything from prime apartments and family homes to new developments, country houses and highly complex transactions. That breadth of experience, combined with long-standing relationships with some of the industry's best agents, solicitors and advisers, allows him to see routes through deals that others can miss.

Known for his calm approach, straight-talking advice and relentless determination, Charles believes there is almost always a way forward when the right property and the right buyer come together. He is patient, creative and never afraid to think differently to get a transaction over the line.
