His career in property began in lettings in the City of London before he moved into sales, going on to lead a successful office in Paddington for more than 8 years and complete more than £150 million in property sales. With over 16 years of experience in the Central London market, Arun has developed specialist knowledge of new-build developments in Fitzrovia, Paddington Basin, Battersea Power Station and Westminster.

He has built a talented and experienced team whose different strengths are united by a shared commitment to personal service and local knowledge.

Fun fact: Before beginning his career in property, Arun graduated from Chelsea School of Arts in London. Away from work, he enjoys great coffee, a game of pool and skiing.
