This newly built three-bedroom house at Blacksmiths Lodge offers approximately 986 sq ft of internal accommodation and has been carefully conceived for buyers who want a new home without compromise or conformity.

The house is arranged over two floors and has a calm, well-judged layout that works effortlessly day to day. On the ground floor, a dedicated study, guest WC and utility cupboard sit neatly alongside a large open-plan kitchen and dining space, designed as the focal point of the home. Full-width bi-folding doors open directly onto a south-facing garden, drawing light into the space and creating a strong connection between inside and out. The garden itself is fully fenced, private and secure, offering a peaceful setting with excellent privacy.

The first floor is arranged around a principal bedroom with en-suite, a generous family bathroom, and two further bedrooms, both enjoying views over the garden. Bathrooms and cloakrooms are finished to a high standard, providing a refined backdrop to the remaining accommodation.

Charles Jordan believes the best property advice starts with understanding the person, not the property. With more than 17 years' experience across London property, Charles has handled everything from prime apartments and family homes to new developments, country houses and highly complex transactions. That breadth of experience, combined with long-standing relationships with some of the industry's best agents, solicitors and advisers, allows him to see routes through deals that others can miss.

Known for his calm approach, straight-talking advice and relentless determination, Charles believes there is almost always a way forward when the right property and the right buyer come together. He is patient, creative and never afraid to think differently to get a transaction over the line.
